Sir,

In continuation of my letter No. 2082, dated the 17th March 1917, I am directed to say that the Administrative Staff, Dar-es-Salaam, have intimated that there is now no objection to families of Military Officers and others in Government Service (which includes employees of the East African Railways) being allowed to proceed to East Africa. This does not, however, apply to officers of the King's African Rifles, to whom the privilege of having their families in conquered territories has not yet been extended. In the case of persons not in Government or Railway Service and their [illegible]
